SUNY, COLLEGE AT BROCKPORT

At SUNY Brockport (2001-2007), each year I was involved in numerous activities in service to the College and the Masters of Public Administration program. Highlights of this service include the following:

Gregory Saxton. November 2003. Survey of Faculty and Staff Civic Engagement Activities, Attitudes, and Beliefs. Survey distributed to 400 (approx.) faculty and staff as part of the campus audit of civic engagement for the American Democracy Project. SUNY, College at Brockport.

Gregory Saxton. January 2004. Civic Engagement on Campus: An Analysis of Faculty and Staff Activities, Attitudes, and Beliefs. Completed as part of the campus audit of civic engagement for the American Democracy Project. SUNY, College at Brockport.

Annual Departmental Assessments. In charge of developing survey instruments, the acquisition of data, and writing the final report for the annual skills and knowledge assessments for the Public Administration Department each academic year. These assessments focused on oral presentation skills, team-building skills, ethical dispositions, and higher-order analytical skills.

2006-07. Central role in helping develop curriculum for new MPA emphasis in Nonprofit Management.
